
Boyd Don Hammonds

HAMMONDS, Boyd Don, 74, of Homosassa, Fla., died November 9, 2009, in Jacksonville, Fla. He was born October 19, 1935, in Hartsville, S.C., son of the late Henry and Edna (Hatchell) Hammonds. Mr. Hammonds was an U.S. Air Force veteran serving during the Korean War. He worked for the Tampa Fire Department for 20 years, retiring in 1981, as captain and was vice president of Benton Express in Jacksonville from 1988, until his passing. He moved to Homosassa, Fla. from Jacksonville Beach in 2004. Mr. Hammonds attended Little House Fellowship/ God' s Work Ministry, Inverness, Fla. Survivors include his wife, Carrie J. Hammonds of Homosassa; son, James Floyd Barrow Jr. of Land O' Lakes, Fla.; four daughters, Valerie Ramsey of Kentucky, Karen Hammonds of Tampa, Donna Farthing of Summerville, S.C. and Jeanette Clancy of Tampa; two sisters, Edna Davis of Charlotte, N.C. and Kaye Bryant of Little River, S.C.; eight grandchildren, Jennifer Harrington, Spencer Ramsey, Shawn Hill, Bryan Farthing, Christa Barrow-Robles, Corey Farthing, Shelby Farthing, and Traci Barrow; and four great-grandchildren, Tanese Hill, Malachi Hill, Nicole Robles and Catalina Robles. The service of remembrance for Mr. Boyd Don Hammonds will be conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday, November 14, 2009, at the Homosassa Chapel of Hooper Funeral Homes with Pastor Joe Hupchick officiating. Interment will follow at Fountains Memorial Park, Homosassa, Fla. Friends may call 10-11 a.m. Saturday, at the Homosassa Chapel. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www. HooperFuneralHome.com.

Published in TBO.com on November 13, 2009
